 Self, sL²-F. See Selves.

Note.—Self at the beginning of words is usually written with the s-circle invariably placed on the line, the rest of the outline being detached and placed close after it and in its own proper position.

Self-com or self-con.
 When the second part of the word commences with com or con, usually represented by a dot, it is not necessary in practice to write the dot.
Self at the end of words is written sometimes with the full outline, sL-F, sometimes with the s-circle joined, and occasionally with the s-circle detached and placed on the line close to the preceding part of the outline.

The note under Self on
